It seems like only yesterday
we were running to the bus, our backpacks over both shoulders, excited about the first day of school.

It seems like only yesterday
we moved into the high school, small and nervous in a world of people bigger than us.

It seems like only yesterday
we experienced our first kiss.

It seems like only yesterday
we went to our Junior Prom.

It seems like only yesterday
we graduated....

"Chris - You'll always be #1 with us! Great Season!"

Despite an outstanding effort by a great group of seniors, the team finished 6-5 and lost a lot of very close games (3 games by a combined 9 points!). The team finished with a great win on Thanksgiving against Norton and sent the seniors out in style. The offensive MVP of that game was Anthony Cogliano and the defensive MVP was John Kupiec. Overall, it was a very rewarding season as the team stayed united, they never quit and they did some very impressive things in the face of adversity.

Girls Varsity Soccer had a stellar year because of the excellent leadership from captains: Ali Landry, Mia DiFabbio, and Becky Galipeau, as well as seniors: Anne Spont, Jess Decasse and Gina Simonetti. They ended the season with a 4-13-1 record, which is the best record in the history of the BHS ladies soccer program. Their season was highlighted with a win over Ashland High School, and a win over Hopkinton High School for the first time in Blackhawk history.

Aww Yeah!

Junior Varsity Boys Soccer

The Boys JV soccer team finished with a record of 0-14-2. Two ties came against Ashland and Dover-Sherbon. The JV team had a tremendous amount of growth throughout the year. Starting with little to no high school experience, these athletes improved after every practice and game. With hard work in the off-season, the boys can only expect to make huge strides into next season.

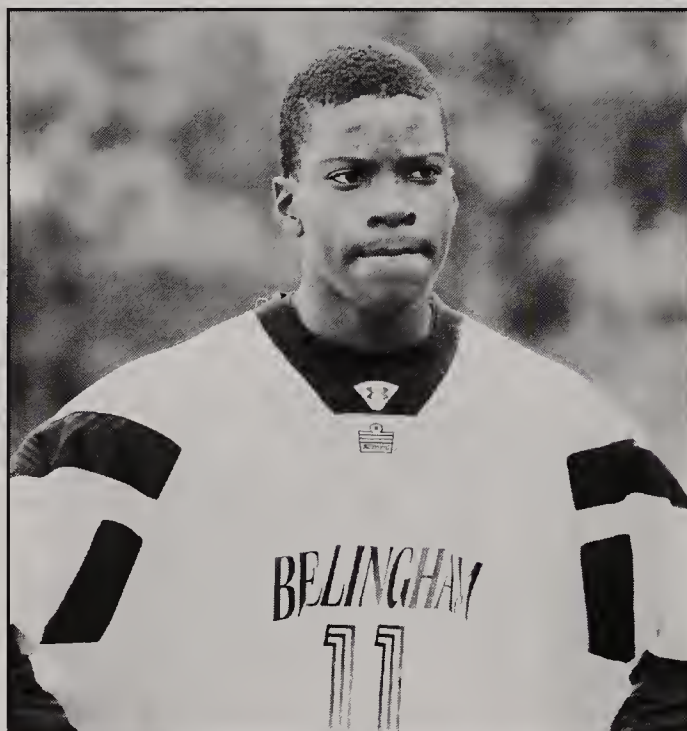

A highlight of the season was the Dover-Sherbon game, in which the tying goal was scored by team MVP Nick Tavares with approximately three minutes left in the game. It was a great team effort for the final push to tie the game. Nate Goldstein played exceptionally well in net for the JV Boys.

Junior Varsity Girls Soccer

Through a tough season, the JV Girls' Soccer team played together and gave it their all. They were always down a few people and sometimes went to games playing with only ten. The team toughed it out and through all of the injuries (Amanda Merrill's broken arm, Kristen Barraford's ankles, Laura Burns torn ACL, Jen Paquette's concussion, and Amanda Felzmann's ankles), they still stayed alive as a team. The girls all came out every game with bumps and bruises but they played. They went on many team runs, endured many hard practices and helped each other out. There was a lot of drama in the locker room, but in the end, the team went out on the field and forgot everything. They acted like a family and above all made the season one to remember.

Field Hockey. This 11 letter word means everything to these girls. Over the season, the best game took place on the south shore against a team named Hanover. Hanover was ranked 12th overall and Bellingham ranked 22nd. The odds were slim but the blackhawks pulled through and won the game! During the season the team acted as a family and became quite close.

The team was led by Senior Captain Andrew Migneault and despite our team's not-so-impressive record, the 2006 Cross Country season has been marked by personal milestones and victories. Our camaraderie went beyond the course, too, as we formed a close-knit family that enjoyed the occasional party and a dinner who's price seemed to depend on how crushing our loss the day of the meet was (needless to say, it was high-class Japanese food after the Medfield meet!)" -Andrew Migneault

The 2006 Fall Cheerleaders did an amazing job at their Tri-Valley League competition. The girls placed fourth in their league, allowing them to move onto the Regional competition. This is the third year in a row the cheerleaders won a place to move on.

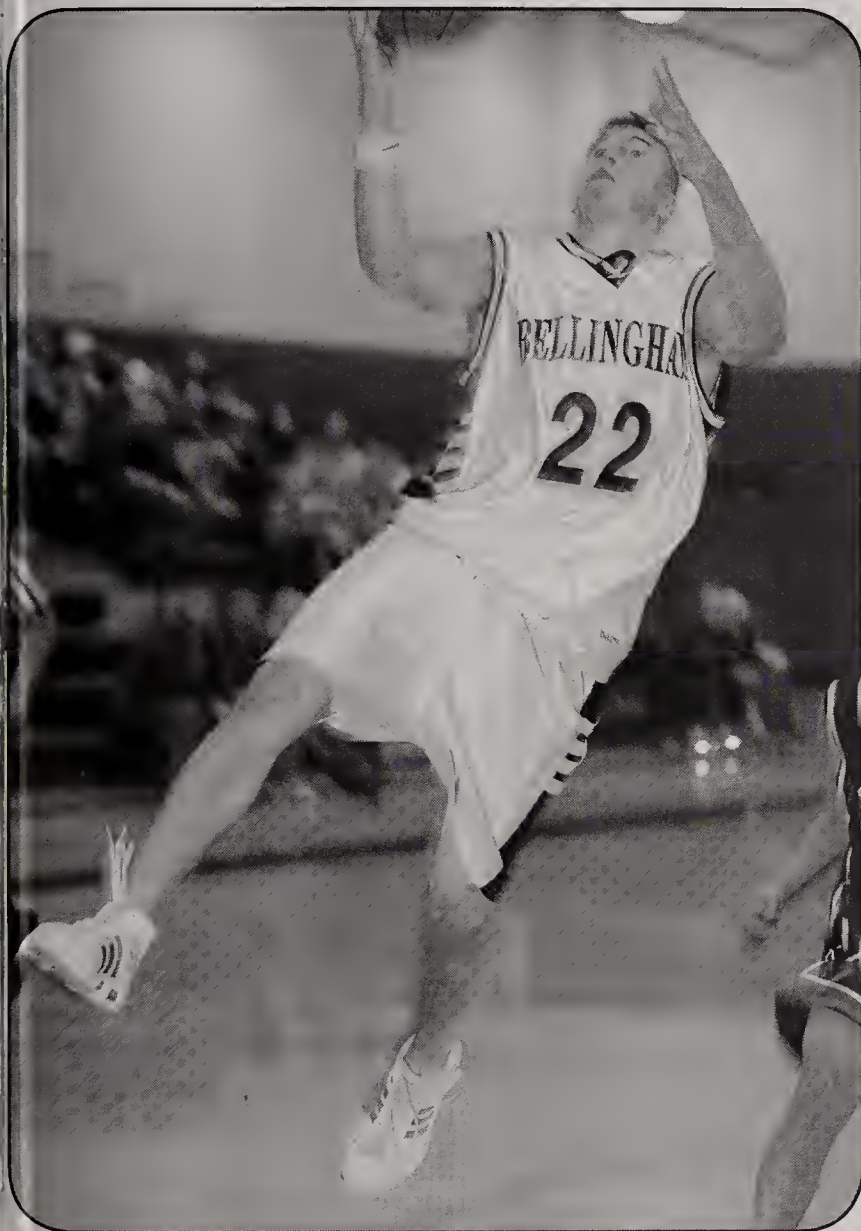

Unfortunately, they did not place at the Regionals, but everyone put in hard work and did their best. All the girls deserve credit for an incredible season.

Varsity Boys Basketball

The basketball season started off with a tragedy. Although the team was down, they kept their eyes on the season. Improving to a quick 3-0 start, the mostly upward season ended with a bid to the tournament, and a big win in the preliminary round followed by a disappointing loss to Norwell. Highlights consisted of beating every team in the league including powerhouse Medfield.

Basketball

Varsity Girls Basketball

The Varsity Girls Basketball team started the season with a new head coach, Mr. Mason. There were few returning players - one sophomore, one junior and three seniors. It was a young and small team.

Senior captains Amy Carbon, Mia DiFabbio, and Anne Spont led the team through a tough season. With numerous injuries, the numbers dwindled and they played games with just enough qualified players.

They had a great time with the new coach and ended the season with a league record of 2-16, not anything to gloat about, but the record didn't reflect the season and they improved a lot.

This season the JV Boys Basketball team enjoyed an 8-10 record. The team was led by captains Chris Cuomo and Derek Hiltz. A couple of their best games were victories over Norton and Westwood. Good luck to the team next year.

JV Girls Basketball

Record 3-15

Roster

Julia Goldstein, Laura Norton, Amanda Felzmann, Shawna Felzmann, Jennifer Healy, Danielle Gregorich, Kasey Armstrong, Alison Armstrong

The Girls JV Basketball team had a 3-15 record for the 2006-2007 season. They enjoyed two victories over Medway and one over Norton. Jen Healy, Jenn Korona, and Katelyn Leahy rotated as unofficial captains for the Lady Hawks. We all wish them luck next season.

Freshmen Boys Basketball

Head Coach - Will McCoy

Roster

Tim Kiernan, Tyler Remy, Jamie Dawes, Isaiah Cerutti, Jim Walker, Ben Creasi, Luis Jennings, Keith Carrier, Nick Tavares, Zach Packard, Chris Fuhrman

The Freshmen Boys Basketball team had a lot of determination and potential. They played hard throughout the entire game, even during games where the opponent was up by 20 points. Coach Will McCoy put everything into coaching the boys, and gave everyone the chance to prove themselves on the court. They will never forget the time where the team played great basketball and came out with a win.

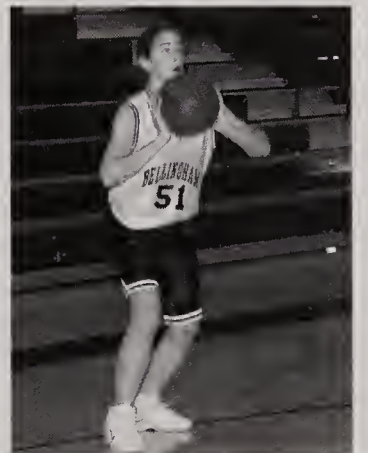

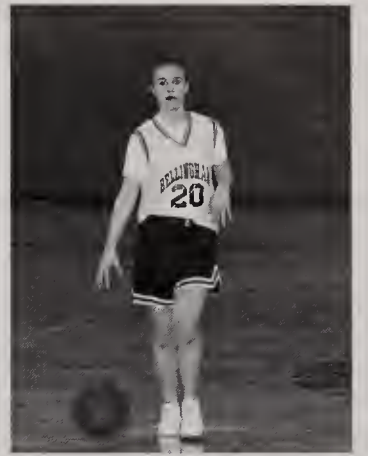

Freshmen Girls Basketball

Head Coach - Forest Henderson

Roster

Kelsey Hayes, Lora Burke, Kelsey Ryan, Jessica Gambrazzio, Genna DiFabbio, Melissa Rogers, Caitlyn Manning, Mariah Brunelle, Kahley Gerrior, Holly Robinson

The Freshmen Girls Basketball team this year was a spirited one. Coaches from other towns were impressed by their energy and determination. Mr. Henderson taught the girls a lot and made everything fun. They even managed to pull out a win against Holliston in overtime! Singing on the bus, eating brownies, dancing all the time, and even playing some basketball made it a season to remember.

Wrestling

The 2006-2007 Blackhawk Wrestling Team was a great success this year. The team went 2-1 at home beating both Norton and Northbridge. On an individual basis, at least seven wrestlers finished with over 15 wins, three with over 20. Five wrestlers advanced onto the Division III State Tournament. The team will greatly miss its three graduating seniors: Andrew Millett, Bill Dalton and Kevin Kivior.

Boys Indoor Track

Despite a less than perfect record of 0-7, the Boys Winter Track team showed strengths that every other team in the league felt. Scoring in almost every race of every meet, it simply came down to numbers, where the 12 person team fell short of most other teams. Despite all odds, it was a personally valiant team.

Girls Indoor Track

The Girls Winter Track team, led by Becky Galipeau, Kate Carnaroli and Ali Landry, ended their season with a record of 3-4, and placed 4th in the TVL at their league meet. Placing at the league meet were Becky Galipeau (3rd in dash, 3rd in shotput), Stacey Belcher (4th in hurdles), Brooke Moore (6th in dash), Kate Carnaroli (4th in 600m, 6th in mile), and the relay team consisting of Jess Decasse, Melissa Laquerre, Leanne Fitzgerald, and Ali Landry (4th in 4x400m). For most, the season was over after the league meet, but some were lucky enough to qualify for the State track meet at the Reggie Lewis Center. Becky Galipeau came in 4th in the high jump and the 4x4 relay team (Decasse, Laquerre, Fitzgerald, and Landry) beat the school record with a time of 4:23.7. Also Kate Carnaroli, Erica Iosue and Stacey Belcher ran their best recorded times at the State meet.

2006-2007 Sports

SPIRIT WEEK

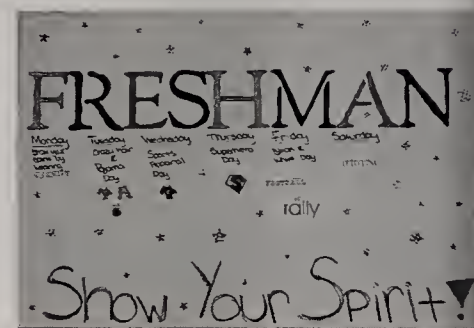

Spirit week is an annual event held the week of homecoming. During this week the rules can be broken. We can wear hats, pajamas and paint our faces and no one thinks we're weird.

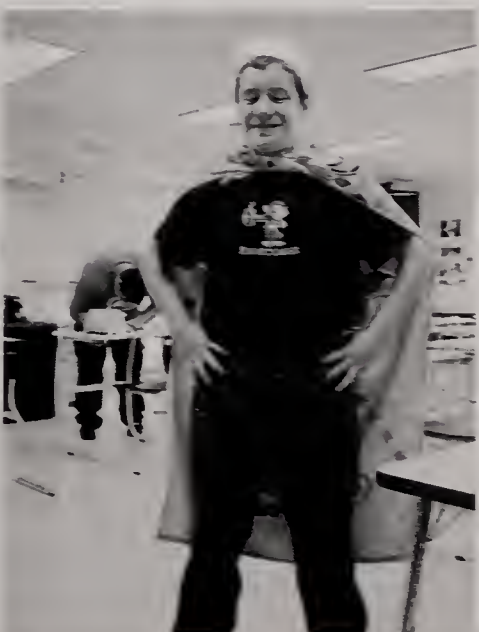

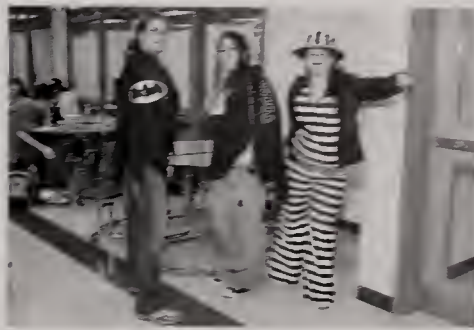

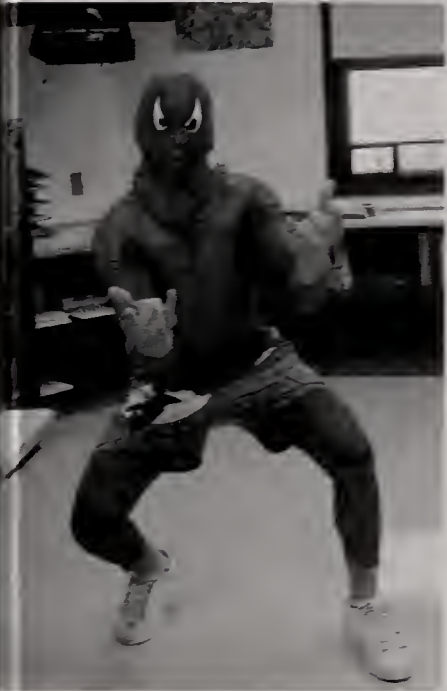

Monday was Color day. On Tuesday, students wore PJ's and crazy hair. Wednesday was Sports Apparel day. On Thursday, regular students morphed into superheros! And on Friday, everyone showed their school spirit by dressing in Black and White. Seniors were the overall winners.

Penny wars created fierce competition that pitted all four grades against each other. The competition went down to the last minutes of third lunch on Friday when Seniors brought in gallon jugs filled with pennies - which catapulted them into first place.

The Junior Class won both the Poster contest and the class links.

Homecoming

Football Game vs. Ashland:
October 20, 2006
Dance at Bellingham High School
October 21, 2006

On Friday, October 20th, the Blackhawk football team faced the Ashland Clockers. The fans were shivering as they watched the Hawks defeat the Clockers with a final score of 27 to 7. Quarterback Chris Haddad scored two touchdowns and threw a 31-yard TD pass to Anthony Cogliano. Running-back Johnny Kupiec ran for 132 yards on 18 carries. Haddad had 101 yards rushing on 3 carries. The Blackhawks led at halftime with a score of 20-7 and the victory was secured by the defense led by Richie Barche and a touchdown scored in the fourth quarter by Alex Corbett.

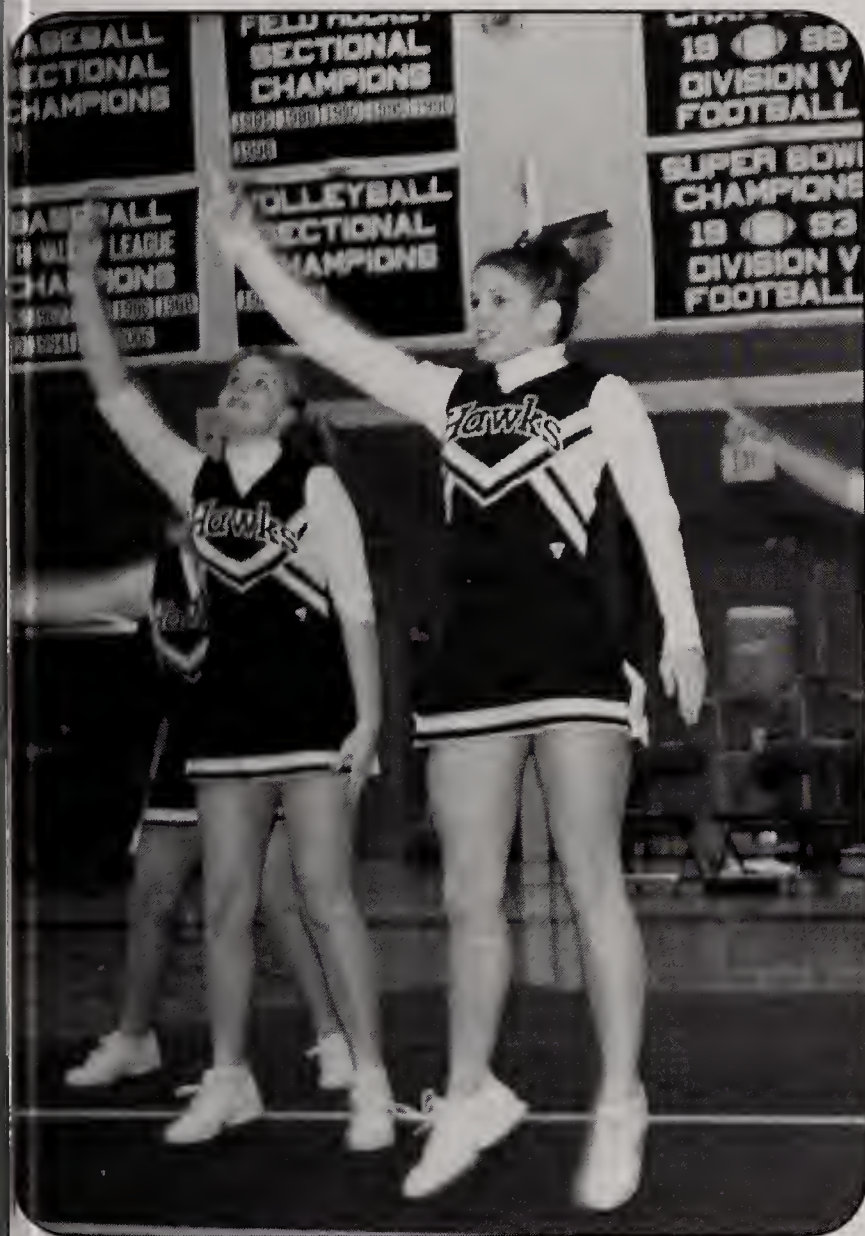

The Homecoming Dance took place the following night in the BHS cafeteria. The royal court consisted of the princesses: Jacqui Myette, Shannon Gibbons, Mia DiFabbio, and Bianca Polcari, and the princes: George Kontoulis, Kyle Koza, Joe Nawrocki, and Anthony Cogliano. The King and Queen of the night were Seamus Munnelly and Alyson Duncan. The attendees were entertained by the dance-off between Jimmy Tran and Trevor Nelson. During the last song of the night the Seniors came together to cheer for their class.

Winter Cheerleading

"At the beginning of the season, we started off with seventeen average girls with very different personalities. Some of the girls' personalities clicked and some didn't. Tears, laughter and drama: we went through it all. The six hour choreography practices payed off in the end. When we stepped off the mat at our TVL competition, we knew we did our best. At the end of our season, we did not leave as seventeen average girls, we left as seventeen best friends."

Student Jobs

"I often dread going to work, but once entering and engaging in my petty, meaningless tasks that play no significant role in the universe, I sometimes find myself contemplating the reasons of my life, and the workings of the cosmos. This deep contemplation and bewilderment is only bestowed upon me by the nearly unbearable amount of sheer boredom that I am ravaged by daily; a sort of delusional state caused by the overwhelming feeling that I am constantly exposed to. Staples plays an unimportant role in people's lives, indeed Staples is unimportant in nearly every aspect of the known universe."

Erin Williams is a student who has a fulfilling job. She works at the Next Generation Children's Center in Franklin. Erin has enjoyed the two years she has worked at the center. 2007 Fashion

As you roam through the halls of B.H.S, it is not unusual to see fashion styles right out of the city. Designer bags are a must along with coordinated footwear. Leaving the house without the perfect hairstyle is like taking a test without a pencil; you just don't do it. Tall boots, long shirts and low belts complete the look along with the appropriate earrings and necklace. Don't overdo it with rings, but a lot of bracelets are okay. As the days change, so do your outfits. So that means...change your purse.

Guys and their graphic hoodies look good as long as they are clean and not wrinkled. Keep your sneakers white and your hair clean most importantly.

Take pride in your look, as presentation is everything. You need to remember one thing when you wake up in the morning: you don't get a second chance to make a first impression!

Class of 2007

Class History

Freshman year felt so cool, coming up from the middle school. Walking down the halls with our heads held high, checking out every single guy that happened to walk by. Four young officers without a class had to start up something new. Seamus Munnally was the President, Sean Burke was the Vice, Mia DiFabbio was the Secretary, and Mike Desimone the Treasurer. Our advisers were new, just like us, but agreed to put up with all of our fuss. Mr. Costa and Mr. Krans, what a pair, helping us when we were in despair. Spirit week we wore green, all of us were new to this scene; Sponge Bob was the theme. We finally found out what the fuss was about, new principal in, old principal out. The school year was coming to an end, we boarded the bus with all of our friends. Off to Six Flags for a day of fun, riding rides in the hot sun. When we came back it was time to say goodbye, while we were all thinking "Wow this year flew by." We really adored the class of '04 we became sophomores when they walked out the door.

Sophomore year we were in the clear, putting things into gear. Some things had changed, Mia the secretary and Mike the treasurer the only officers to remain. President Allie Stark and Vice President Amy Carbon came in to play the game. Our new principal arrived and we managed to survive. Mr. Boddament entered the school revising some of our rules. Although our princess posters were the best, you can't argue with the rest. In spirit week the seniors always come out on top, but this year we wanted it to stop. When the week came to an end, no surprise, the seniors won again. Our cheerleaders placed third, moving on to regionals was something they definitely deserved. When we arrived to lunch one day, everything was in disarray. There was a new lunch system involving a lot of technology; students were upset, the computer techs offered their apologies. We picked out class rings; we were all excited to receive our new bling. "Night at the Oscars" was the theme of our ring dance. The floor was full of fun and young romance. The court looked great; it must have been fate. Our Queen was Amy Carbon and our King was Anthony Cogliano. The princesses were Michelle Perella, Ashley Prior, Lauren Cloutier and the princes were Mark Fuller, Kevin Johnson, and Jimmy Robery. Sophomore year was winding down, we knew next year new challenges would be found.

Junior year, one step closer to getting off this high school rollercoaster. The officers changed again, new comers ready to begin. Johnny Kupiec was the new VP, and Kate Mackenzie was the new Treasurer. Our President was still Allie Stark, and Secretary Mia DiFabbio stayed in office. Spirit week came and passed, luckily we didn't come in last. The field hockey team dominated the Tri-Valley League, running and playing so hard they never looked fatigued. Tragedy brought our class together, boys we are all so glad you are better. Congrats to the boys basketball team, being the TVL champions must have been like a dream. Winter had finally ended and we were spring bound. The girls all began searching for the perfect prom gown. Junior prom was such a blast, who would have known it would go by so fast. The members of the court were named; King George Kontoulis began his reign. Amy Carbon was the Queen. The princesses were Alyson Duncan, Bianca Polcari, Alison Landry and Julie Luskin. The princes were Kevin Johnson, Andy Millet and Jimmy Tran. This year we had a third team become the Champs of the TVL, our baseball team, congrats, you did so well. Junior year was practically done, we couldn't wait for senior year's fun. The class of '07 is the oldest now; to our friends from the class of '06 "ciao."

Senior year has come at last. It's incredible how much we've accomplished as we've grown and matured with our class. We welcomed back our new senior President Seamus Munnelly. Mia remained the Secretary, finishing her four years at term. The new comers: Ali Landry who became the Vice and Becky Galipeau the Treasurer were ready to lead and stand firm. Our class adviser had to fulfill some other plans. Ms. Walsh stepped in to offer assistance, helping our class go the distance. Spice girls was our original Spirit week poster theme. When we found out the sophomore class was doing it too, we wanted to scream! A last minute rush with the help of a dedicated few, we managed to make our posters good as new. Our senior class didn't win Spirit week! Those underclassmen were such little sneaks. Our girls' soccer team held the school record having four wins, one of which was beating the powerhouse Hopkinton. Homecoming dance, our final one together, others as well as myself wishing it could last forever. Our King was Seamus Munnelly, our Queen Alyson Duncan. The princesses were Bianca Polcari, Mia DiFabbio, Shannon Gibbons and Jacqui Myette. The princes were Anthony Cogliano, George Kontoulis, Joey Nawrocki and Kyle Koza. We lost a valued staff member, Mr. Clinton you will always be remembered. The senior class with a huge help from Lauren Jensen started something new, the winter sports teams felt a winter spirit week was due. Only a handful of seniors attended the pep rally; the classes competed - the seniors were the winners according to the tally. As basketball season arrived, it stirred deep memories from inside. Our beloved boys basketball coach Barry Hutchinson passed, his presence on the court will forever last. Mr. Baker, we wish you a happy retirement. Your dedication is our inspiration, as we stand tall and leave these familiar halls. As we look forward to senior year's end, we can't wait for Prom and Disney with our friends. Graduation will be bittersweet, but the memories we will forever keep. So to my dear class which I love and adore, I encourage you to learn something new and explore. Don't ever be afraid to follow your dreams, it's probably not as hard as it seems. As we say our goodbyes and part, I will promise to hold all of you close to my heart. As I think back I now I must be blessed by heaven, to graduate and stand beside the infamous class of 2007.

Ring Dance

The theme of Ring Dance was "A Night At The Oscars". It was decorated with the Hollywood Sign made from balloons and the red carpet was laid out for the celebrated sophomores. They all walked up one by one to collect their class rings. The court for this night was King Anthony Cogliano, Queen Amy Carbon, Princesses Michelle Perella, Ashley Prior, Lauren Cloutier, and Princes Jimm Robery, Kevin Johnson, and Mark Fuller.

2006

Prom

Junior Prom was a night to remember. It was held at Glen Ellen Country Club on May 19, 2006. We lined up and circled the dance floor to determine the junior court. The results were in and they were called up one by one. Our Queen was Amy Carbon and our King was George Kontoulis. The Princes were Anthony Cogliano, Andy Millet, Jimmy Tran, and Kevin Johnson. The Princesses were Bianca Polcari, Ali Landry, Alyson Duncan, and Julie Luskin.

To the Class of 2007

I hope the days come easy and the moments pass slow
And each road leads you where you want to go
And if you're faced with a choice and you have to choose
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you
And if one door opens to another door closed
I hope you keep on walking til you find the window
If it's cold outside, show the world the warmth of your smile
But more than anything, more than anything

My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to
I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things too
Yeah, this is my wish

I hope you never look back but you never forget
All the ones who love you and the places you left
I hope you always forgive and you never regret
And you help somebody every chance you get
Oh, you find God's grace in every mistake
And always give more than you take
But more than anything, yeah more than anything

My wish, for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to
Your dreams stay big, your worries stay small
You never need to carry more than you can hold
And while you're out there getting where you're getting to
I hope you know somebody loves you and wants the same things too
Yeah, this is my wish
May all your dreams stay big

Erica Belcastro,
Hold on to your hat! Great times are on the way! Love and best wishes, Mom, Dad, Andy, Leah, and Steven

Stephen Gray, Your many achievements throughout your school years are just beginning. No matter what path you choose to take, we have no doubt you will excel. You are a wonderful young man and we are very, very proud of you. Love, Mom and Dad.

Jessica Campano

Congratulations on finishing high school. Good luck in this future on what ever you do. We all love you.

Mom and Dad
Nick, Kayleigh, and Jacob

Shannon Gibbons

Your fashion style started early. We are so proud of you! Have fun in college! We love you.

Love, Mom, Dad and Kelli

Amanda Zagame

I hope you never lose your sense of wonder
You get your fill to eat but always keep that hunger
May you never take one single breath for granted
God forbid love ever leave you empty handed
I hope you still feel small when you stand beside the ocean
Whenever one door closes I hope one more opens
Promise me that you'll give fate a fighting chance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance
I hope you never fear those mountains in the distance
Never settle for the path of least resistance
Living might mean taking chances but they're worth taking Loving might be a mistake but it's worth making
When you come close to selling out, reconsider
Give the heavens above more than just a passing glance
And when you get the choice to sit it out or dance
I hope you dance

Justin Marshall

May your dreams stay big, your worries stay small and may you never have to carry more than you can hold.

Love, Mom, Dad, Brandon, and Meghan

Alex Press

Congratulations Alex! Love, Mom, Kiley, and Timmy

James Bragdon,

We will miss you Mr. Clinton

As a crucial member of the Bellingham teaching faculty, Gene Clinton will be sorely missed. For the last 27 years, he has served as a math and special needs teacher; he had an obvious passion for teaching. Mr. Clinton was one of the first teachers in Bellingham to work with special needs children at the elementary level, which he thoroughly enjoyed. At the high school level, he was very active in his own self-contained special needs class; he took his students to the woodworking shop and they cooked in class. He provided a vital aspect of public education process to the special needs students - he included them and allowed them to participate. Teaching brought Mr. Clinton a lot of happiness.

Although teaching was a major part of his life, Mr. Clinton enjoyed many "after school activities," including traveling and camping. Every weekend he could, he would go camping. He translated his love of travel into a club he started at BHS, the Explorer's Club, which planned excursions and day trips to places all over New England. Mr. Clinton also loved to take annual cruises and he enjoyed the Caribbean, Florida and visiting Las Vegas.

A lifelong resident of Bellingham, Mr. Gene Clinton will be sincerely missed by the town. His contributions to the Bellingham School District will never be forgotten and his memory will live through his students, co-teachers and traveling companions.

To: Jason Elz
Through thick and thin together forever!
I love you!

Epilogue 2007 was produced by the yearbook staff at Bellingham High School in Bellingham, MA, and printed by Herff Jones, Inc. in Gettysburg, PA. Representatives Dick Swiech and Mary Helen Marina and customer service adviser Linda Mauss serviced the account. The yearbook staff developed the theme: "Time Flies" at their first meeting in September. The smyth sewn, squarebacked, hardcover contained original art designed by Sarah Swanson (interior art by Sherlyn Wang), screen printed in 705 black ink and 704 silver ink. The four-color endsheets were printed on VC 01 white paper. The final trim size was 8.5"x11". The book's 172 pages were printed on Bordeaux Matte Special 80 pound paper stock. The 2007 volume includes 16 pages in full color and 156 in black and white, with 2007 World Yearbooks sewn at the end. All headline, caption and body copy was set in Comic Sans font. Pages were submitted to the plant on CD using Adobe InDesign CS2. Layouts were created using one PC and an HP Laserjet 1100 printer. Digital images were shot using various student-owned digital cameras and the adviser-owned Olympus E-300 8 mega-pixel camera and digitally placed into the layouts using Herff Jones Image-In software. Analog photographs were scanned using an Epson 4990 Photo scanner and manipulated in Adobe Photoshop CS2. Images by Bob DiCaprio provided the portraits, sports photography and various candid shots. 235 copies of the book were sold for $50.

WORLD

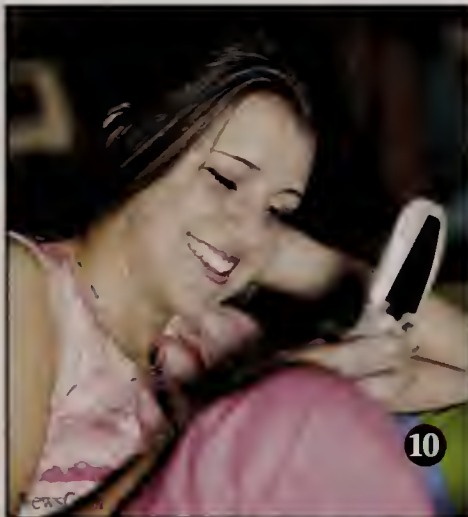

1. President George W. Bush announced in January 2007 that he would send an additional 21,500 troops to Iraq to improve security and assist with U.S. efforts there. Bush vowed that the Americans killed would not have died in vain. The 2008 budget projection for fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan and repairing and replacing equipment lost in combat was an estimated $141.7 billion. American death tolls in Iraq eclipsed 3,150 and the official total for Americans wounded surpassed 23,500.

4. Congress extended Daylight Savings Time for the sake of energy efficiency. Clocks were changed March 11 rather than the first Sunday in April.

5. Texan Andrea Yates was found not guilty by reason of insanity of murdering her five children by drowning them in a bathtub five years ago.

6. A newborn male white buffalo in a Wisconsin herd attracted the attention of Native Americans who consider the animal sacred for its potential to bring good fortune and peace. This is the third white buffalo born into the herd.

7. In January 2007, Northern Europe was hit by an unusually strong storm which killed an Englishman when a falling branch crushed his car. Heavy rains and gale-force winds caused delays in air and sea travel. 8. Former State Department official Richard Armitage admitted that he inadvertently revealed CIA employee Valerie Plame's identity to reporters.

9. CBS correspondent Kimberly Dozier was the only member of her crew who survived a June car bombing in Baghdad.

10. Students found a way to receive messages in class by downloading a ringtone with a pitch so high teachers couldn't hear it.

11. As much as 75 percent of California's citrus crop was damaged in a January 2007 cold snap that lasted more than a week. 12. Gerald Ford, the 38th president, died on Dec. 26, 2006, and was buried in Grand Rapids, MI.

13. On Sept. 6, 2006, British Prime Minister Tony Blair announced that the 2006 Labour Party conference would be his last.

The family of Milena Del Valle filed a wrongful death lawsuit after she was crushed by 12 tons of concrete in a "Big Dig" accident at the Boston highway construction project.

China successfully used a missile carrying a "kill vehicle" to blast an old Chinese weather satellite from its orbit 537 miles above Earth. U.S. government officials said that the test could undermine relations with the West and pose a threat to satellites important to the U.S. military.

A team of French doctors removed a cyst from a man's arm in a 10-minute mid-air surgery used as a feasibility study for possible surgery in space. The five-doctor team operated in near zero-gravity conditions produced by an Airbus 300 looping to create interval dives simulating weightlessness.

A Kansas teenager racked up perfect scores on the ACT and SAT. Jakub Voboril of Wichita got a 36 on the ACT on his third try. He received his SAT results shortly after the perfect ACT score: a perfect score of 2400. He did check out test prep books, but his advice: "Pay attention in class."

The baiji, a rare, nearly blind white river dolphin, is effectively extinct. Researchers say pollution and overfishing in the Yangtze River caused the species' demise. Plus, ship traffic there confused the sonar the baiji used to find food.

Americans won the Nobel prizes for physics (John Mather of NASA Goddard Flight Center and George Smoot from UC Berkeley with their satellite program that backed up the Big Bang theory), chemistry (Roger D. Kornberg from Stanford School of Medicine who studied how cells take information from genes to produce proteins), medicine (Andrew Z. Fire from MIT and Craig C. Mello from Harvard who discovered a way to turn off specific genes) and economics (Edmund S. Phelps from Columbia University for examining the trade-offs between inflation and its effects on unemployment).

Houston truck driver Tyrone Williams was spared the death penalty and sentenced to life in prison for his role in the nation's deadliest smuggling attempt – a journey that ended in the deaths of 19 illegal immigrants crammed into a sweltering tractor-trailer, after Williams abandoned them and the rig.

1. The American Border Patrol monitors a 4.5-mile metal fence separating the two cities named Nogales. About 20,000 people live on the Arizona side (left); 200,000 on the Mexican side. Immigration remained an emotional issue. In addition to legislation strengthening border security, the Senate proposed programs where long-time illegal immigrants could apply for guest worker permits or "earn" their citizenship. Conservatives opposed the legalization plans, saying they amounted to "amnesty."

2. Congressman Bob Ney, R - OH, pleaded guilty to federal criminal corruption charges and announced he would not seek re-election.

7. January was warmer than usual in many parts of the country. Punxsutawney Phil predicted an early spring on Groundhog Day, but bitter cold, days of ice and as much as 10 feet of snow (in parts of upstate New York) typified February.

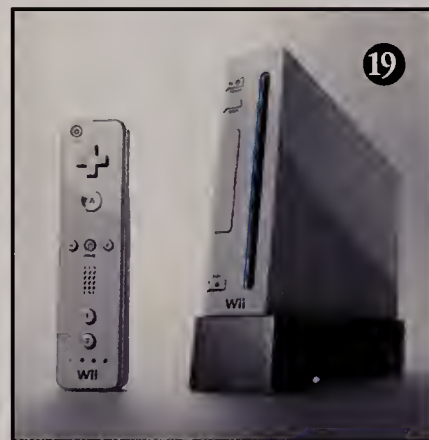

13. Animal rights activists were up in arms when more than 50,000 dogs were slaughtered in China in a government-ordered crackdown after three people died of rabies. Only military dogs and police canine units were spared.

4. Citing climate change as a cause, scientists studied a giant ice shelf — the size of Manhattan — which broke away from an island south of the North Pole and was adrift as an independent island.

5. Findings from the surgeon general declared secondhand smoke at any level a hazard.

6. Fighting in Lebanon lessened after the U.N. Security Council passed Resolution 1701, but Hezbollah leaders insisted they would not drop their weapons.

21. Polar bears are considered a "threatened" species as scientists predict that global warming may eliminate their habitat entirely by 2040. The report said there is little doubt that global warming has been caused by human activities.

22. A woman who disappeared in the jungles of Cambodia as a child was found 19 years later. The 27-year-old, who does not speak, was identified by a scar on her arm. She disappeared in 1988 while herding buffalo.

The Dow Jones industrial average closed above 12,000 for the first time ever on Oct. 19, 2006, and remained above that lofty benchmark through year's end.

Concentration camp and incarceration records would be the first Nazi documents released under a plan to make millions of files stored in Germany accessible to Holocaust researchers. Holocaust survivors have waited decades to see records meticulously kept by the Nazis; transport documents and death lists, and notes on concentration camp inmates ranging from their hereditary diseases to the number of lice plucked from their heads are included.

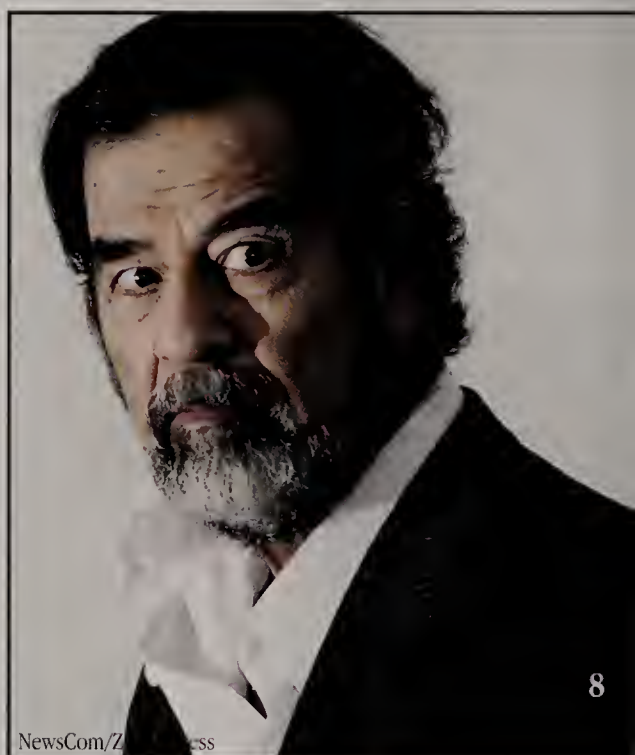

At 14, Michael Perham, from Potters Bar in Hertfordshire, England, became the youngest person to sail solo across the Atlantic Ocean. He arrived in Antigua in January, seven weeks after setting off on the 3,500-mile journey from Gibraltar aboard the 28-foot boat, Cheeky Monkey.

Three climbers stranded after a fall on Oregon's Mt. Hood were rescued in February after spending the night amid ferocious winds and blowing snow. The two women and a man slipped off a ledge and fell about 100 feet in the process of descending from a winter climb and camping expedition interrupted by bad weather. In December, three members of a climbing party perished on the 11,239-foot mountain when the group became separated. After 10 days, searchers recovered one of the bodies in a snow cave and called off their work as another winter storm approached the area. The other climbers were presumed dead.

1. Women made history in Kuwait's June Parliamentary elections as it was the first time females were allowed to run for office and the first time Kuwaiti women were allowed to vote. 2. The outbreak of illness linked to E. coli in spinach in September hospitalized 60 and caused a ban on bagged California spinach. Before year's end, another E. coli outbreak, this one traced to lettuce and green onions served by the fast food chain Taco Bell and others, sickened more than 70 who had patronized East Coast restaurants.

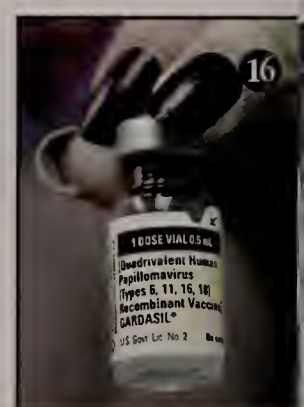

3. King Taufa'ahau Tupou IV, who reigned over Tonga's 170 islands in the South Pacific for 41 years, was buried in September. 4. 9. In the nation's third deadly school shooting in less than a week, a milk-truck driver killed five female students before he shot himself. The Oct. 2 incident sent shockwaves through Nickel Mines, PA, a Lancaster County town where the one-room Amish schoolhouse was located. In other instances of school violence, deaths occurred in Bailey, CO; Montreal, QB; Sudbury, MA and Tacoma, WA.
